

Some Notes on the MCDM 2015 T-Shirt

August 7, 2015

1 Introductory remarks

The logo has been produced using the “Pastor of Muppets” font by Ray Larabie, which is available on the internet, free for non-commercial use. All letters have been converted to polygons.

For the MCDM 2015 conference, we opted for white text printed on black t-shirts. The red element remained red.

2 Copyright

I do not claim any “copyright” on the file or artwork (but of course I am the creator of the file and design!). However, I kindly ask you to respect the following two rules:

1. I do not allow the commercial use of the file. I give it away for free, so you should not sell it or any product derived from it.
2. Please send me a picture of you wearing the t-shirt. It could be fun collecting a couple of them, and updating the MCDM-2015-website with them.
